

GUI Configuration

User and computer configuration is done via the GUI, which maps into the SQL database.

There is a built in admin account, with credentials stored inside of 1Password that can configure.

SETTINGS

Active Sessions

History

Users

Groups

Connections

Preferences

Click or tap on a group below to manage that group. Depending on your access level, groups can be added :

New Group

Filter

Administrators

Different permission groups can be configured, these permission groups can also contain connection groups as well as Guacamole Administration permissions.